

Women's History Table of Contents

Unit Components Explained

- Readings: Digital essays of 10-12 pages each, reinforced with audio, video, animation, and primary sources.
- Activities: Primary source or data-driven problem. Includes a context-building background section. Includes several assessment options, including an analytical activity, free response poll, and quiz poll to generate classroom or online discussion. At-home activity quiz also available.

Assessment items on these pages are reviewable on the site.

Overview of Women's History, by Patricia Evridge Hill, San Jose State University

Chapter 1: Colonial Women, 1607-1750, by Tatiana Irwin, College of San Mateo

Reading: Colonial Women, 1607-1750

Activity: John White and the Vision of the New World

Activity: European Views of Native American Women

Activity: Why do Women figure so prominently in Witchcraft Trials?

Activity: The Trial of Anne Hutchinson

Activity: Devils in the New World

Video Library

Chapter 2: Revolutionary Mothers and Republican Motherhood, 1750-1800, by Emily Tiepe, Fullerton College

Reading: Revolutionary Mothers and Republican Motherhood, 1750-1800

Activity: Medicine and Women in the 18th Century

Activity: Women's Education and Republican Motherhood

Video Library

Chapter 3: Women and the Antebellum Reform Movements, 1800-1860, by Erin Miller, Bakersfield College

Reading: Women and Antebellum Reform Movements, 1800-1860

Activity: Horace Mann and Education

Activity: Measuring Alcoholism

Video Library

Chapter 4: The Struggle for Women’s Suffrage, 1848-1920, by Eva Mo, Modesto Junior College

Reading: The Struggle for Women’s Suffrage, 1848-1920

Activity: The Women’s Suffrage Movement and the West

Activity: Elizabeth Cady Stanton and the AERA

Video Library

Chapter 5: Women of the West and South, 1866-1920, by Patricia Evridge Hill, San Jose State University

Reading: Women of the South and West, 1866-1920

Activity: Slave Recollections in the Federal Writers’ Project

Activity: The Richmond Bread Riots

Video Library

Chapter 6: Women at Work, 1870-1940, by Allison Hepler, University of Maine, Farmington

Reading: Women at Work, 1870-1940

Activity: The Psychological Effect of the Great Depression

Activity: Dorothea Lange and the Hispanic Farmworkers

Activity: Ethnic Enclaves and Jane Addams

Activity: Letters to the Roosevelts

Video Library

Chapter 7: Women at War and Peace, 1914-1960, by Gabrielle Goldberg, New York University

Reading: Women at War and Peace, 1914-1960

Activity: Women and the Homefront

Activity: Patriotic Music

Activity: Was the flapper a feminist?

Video Library

Chapter 8: Modern Feminism, 1960-present, by Christine Eubanks, Bergen College

Reading: Modern Feminism, 1960-present (late August 2019)

Activity: Title IX and Women’s Sports

Activity: The Gender Gap and Voting

Activity: The Living Wage Movement

Activity: Bill Clinton’s Welfare Reform Speech, 1995

Activity: The Equal Rights Amendment (ERA)

Activity: Sexual Harassment and Anita Hill

Activity: Gender, Age, and Voting

Activity: Women in Congress, 1917-2011

Activity: Rapid Social Change and the LGBT Community

Video Library

Possible Scholar’s Mart Items (Items on these pages are reviewable on the site)

Women in Government and Politics Suite ($5)

Public Women, Local Library ($2)

The Forgotten Women of the West ($2)

The New Woman, 1860-1920 ($2)

First Ladies ($2)

Christian Feminism ($2)

Black Feminism ($2)

The American Nurses Association embraces Feminism ($2)

Radicalization of Feminism ($2)